WOMEN IN NEAR RIOT

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—President Wilson, speaking to a new citizens meeting here tonight declared that foreign born citizens of the United States should put their American allegiance above all others. He praised the ideals that bring new citizens to the United States and outlined his belief that in the determination of the future of the world after the present war America will play an important part. During a strenuous 12 hours in Chicago the president addressed a collection of women as "fellow citizens," upheld the principle of the eight hour day and urged that progressives of all parties work for a broader America. A demonstration lasting more than five minutes greeted the president at a new citizens meeting tonight. Men stood on chairs and cheered, waving their hats. The president stood and bowed again and again. The applause ended when a clergyman began an invocation.

In a speech before the Chicago Press Club, the president predicted the beginning of "a renaissance of the sense of patriotic responsibility" and urged the development of progressiveness. Speaking before a gathering of women later he urged more participation of women in the affairs of the nation and at a meeting tonight of new citizens he declared for a united America.

At his every appearance the president was cheered by throngs which packed the streets during his automobile ride from place to place and filled to capacity the halls in which he spoke. He stood in his automobile while passing thru the crowds and smilingly waved his hat to the people in the streets and in the windows of buildings.

An attempted "silent demonstration" by members of the National Woman's Party in front of the Auditorium developed into a near riot in which banners opposing Wilson were torn from the demonstrators and trampled, and the women were roughly handled. President Wilson was seated in an automobile a few hundred feet away when the demonstration started but passed into the building and was not a witness to the scene that followed.

Shouting "shame," "disgrace" and "get the banners," a crowd of several hundred, sprinkled with women charged the banner holders. Umbrellas and canes were used in the destruction of the placards. Many of the women were knocked down and nearly all were roughly handled, especially those who strove to retain their banners.

The excitement continued until all the banners had been seized. With disheveled hair and soiled and torn clothing, the women marched back to their headquarters under police guard.

Charges that the police sympathized with the rioters and failed to protect the demonstrators were made by Mrs. Josephine Pearce and Mrs. E. L. Mattie, officials of local woman's Republican clubs.

"There were all kinds of police men standing about merely looking on, moving a hand," said Mrs. Pearce. "Some of them didn't seem to want to help us. I saw policemen deliberately stand nearby and laugh at us while we were being beaten and the banners torn from our hands."

"We were merely standing quietly holding our banners and not harming anyone. Suddenly there was a regular riot. They grabbed our banners, trampled on them and knocked us down. It was terrible."

Negro waiters employed at the Press Club utilized the presence of President Wilson at lunch to gain for themselves a raise in wages, without investigation and without compromise. Just before the president was due to arrive thirty special waiters who were to serve the luncheon put on their coats, preparatory to walking out. They had not asked for more pay but when stopped by the steward told him they had decided they must have a 50 per cent increase on the contract price before they would begin their duties. The advantage was their's and the increase was granted. Members of the congressional union compared the scene of the demonstration with the suffrage parade in Washington the day before President Wilson was inaugurated.

"The disgraceful attack upon the

LABOR MEN NAME JOLIET FOR MEETING

Leaders Prepare to Close Thirty-Fourth Convention of Illinois Federation Tonight.

Quincy, Ill., Oct. 19.—Joliet was selected today as the 1917 convention city of the Illinois State Federation of Labor. With the disposition of 41 of the 61 resolutions before the convention labor leaders tonight prepared to close the 34th annual convention tomorrow night.

Today saw 37 of the resolutions disposed of. Closer co-operation with the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen was advised, recommendations for the purchase of a lot and the erection of a labor temple in Springfield were approved, financial help to families affected by the Oglesby and LaSalle cement strikes and the Rost Claire strike were arranged for and the legal department was ordered continued.

A resolution for the convention to adopt ways and means to stop the boy scout movement was introduced but the resolution committee agreed that the executive officers be a committee to investigate all organizations for the development of children and report at the next convention. The contention is that the boy scout movement is military and tends to teach militarism to children.

Among the other important resolutions adopted were the passage of a law to abolish loan companies that charge more than 7 per cent interest; a resolution for all affiliated trades to support the White Rats, a theatrical organization in their fight against a threatened lockout Oct. 21st, and a resolution that a law be introduced which will prohibit any person 16 years of age driving an automobile on the street.

CHICAGO BAKER TRIES TO SEE PRESIDENT

Denied Admittance to Hotel—Will Take Up Advances in Wheat and Flour With Madden.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Recent advances in the prices of wheat and flour prompted B. H. Dahlheimer, president of the Master Bakers' Association of Chicago, to make an effort today to present to President Wilson an appeal to take steps to meet the crisis which the bakers say will follow. Mr. Dahlheimer and several members of the local association tried to see the president at his hotel, but were denied admittance. Later Mr. Dahlheimer said: "The president's attendants refused to let me see President Wilson and therefore I shall present the protest to our congressman, Martin B. Madden. Something should be done to meet the advancing prices of wheat and flour, as it involves a higher price for bread as an inevitable consequence."

SIX ESCAPE FROM SING SING IN AUTO

OSSINING, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Riding in a prison automobile truck, six inmates of Sing Sing drove past a guard and made their escape about noon today Acting Warden Calvin Derrick announced tonight. The finding of the abandoned truck gave the first intimation that the men, all of whom were serving sentences of from 15 years to life, had fled.

Acting Warden Derrick, who took charge of the prison this week upon the resignation of Thomas Mott Osborne, said Richard Hyler, the guard at the prison gate, had been suspended pending an investigation. The truck was driven by a convict dressed in the uniform of a guard.

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky., Oct. 19.—William Jennings Bryan, in his addresses here this afternoon and several other Kentucky towns during the day in behalf of President Wilson praised his handling of the country's affairs and urged his re-election.

At Nashville this morning Mr. Bryan made a mistake and boarded the regular passenger train for Bowling Green, Ky., instead of a special train which would have taken him to Guthrie, Ky. Because of this it was necessary to cancel an engagement to speak at Russellville.

ILLINOIS SUFFRAGISTS CONVENE IN SPRINGFIELD

Unanimously Nominate Mrs. Trout for President

Mrs. Brown Delivers Address Blazing Path of Next Suffrage Fight in This State—Election Will be Held Saturday.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 19.—The work of the suffragists of Illinois in a campaign for full suffrage which its sponsors predict will reach into every precinct of the state, was cut out for them by Mrs. Harrison Munro Brown of Peoria, president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association, in her annual address before the forty eighth annual convention of the association here today when she told the 200 delegates present that the suffrage organization would be the "tool of no political party" and that it was "unwise to oppose the party in power."

Her speech blazing the path of the next suffrage fight in this state, was the second step in that campaign. The first was the unanimous nomination for president at the morning session of Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout of Chicago, president of the association during the campaign which resulted in the passage of the suffrage law in 1913, who will again take up the leadership of the 200,000 women composing the membership of the organization and will marshal the forces to make full and complete woman suffrage a reality. She has no opposition for the office and will be elected Saturday morning.

The expected appearance of a fight to have the association endorse one of the political parties did not materialize.

The opportunity for it came this afternoon when the woman's Congressional Union, which is working for the federal suffrage amendment, had been invited to have a representative present to give the convention their side of the suffrage question. No representative appeared. Mrs. Brown's speech was taken to be an answer to the stand of the Union.

"In my opinion we have nothing to gain by partisan or militant methods," declared Mrs. Brown. "Not since 1869 has any party had a two-thirds of all the votes in both houses of congress. One party is always necessarily in the majority but it cannot be held responsible for a two-thirds vote when it does not possess it. Probably no party will soon again have two thirds of the vote in congress and be able to put thru a federal amendment, therefore it behooves us to secure the support of all parties in order that we may gather from each the necessary strength and votes to secure the passage of our resolution."

Mrs. Brown's speech was ordered printed and distributed by the association. In addition to Mrs. Trout the following were nominated:

First vice president: Mrs. George A. Soden, Chicago.

Second vice president: Mrs. Judith Well Loewenthal, Chicago.

Recording Secretary: Mrs. Katherine Porter, Chicago.

Corresponding Secretary: Miss Margaret B. Dobyns, Chicago.

Treasurer: Mrs. Jack Bowers, Chicago.

Auditor: Miss Nellie Carlin, Chicago.

Board of Directors: Mrs. Harrison Munro Brown, Peoria; Mrs. Blanche West, Bushnell; Mrs. J. W. McGraw, Glenwood; Mrs. Susest Ryerson, Chicago; Mrs. Albert H. Schweitzer, Chicago; Mrs. Charles Nagel, Chicago; Mrs. Stett Holloway McClung, Monmouth; Mrs. Frank Funk, Bloomington; Mrs. Lyman Walton, Chicago.

This entire ticket will be formally elected Saturday.

The convention took no action today of what method they would advocate to secure full suffrage.

Delegates and visitors were guests at a reception given by Governor and Mrs. Dunne at the executive mansion tonight.

The convention will be called by Secretary-Treasurer Duncan McDonald upon his return from Quincy. Farrington is charged with using his office to assist Frank L. Smith of Dwight, who was a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor.

War News Summarized

Gradually the French are drawing their front closer to the town of Peronne on the eastern bank of the Somme river in France. After Wednesday's advance along a mile front between Blaches and LaMaisonette on the west side of the river an attack launched Thursday was rewarded with further gains which virtually brings them to the bank of the stream.

To the north and east of Sailly-Sailliesel, where the French have advanced their line in the last few days at what the Berlin war office asserts was a cost in casualties not commensurate with the gain, the Germans have made a violent counter attack, which was repulsed by the French.

Berlin admits that in their attacks on the Sars-Morval front the British captured German positions, but says the latter were retaken.

Heavy rains fell Thursday on the British front and, except for a slight gain by the British at Butte-de-Warrencourt and the repulse of a German counter-attack there, comparative quiet prevailed.

As yet no decisive result has been achieved by either the Austro-Germans or the Russians in the violent fighting that has been going on for several days in Volhynia and Galicia. The Petrograd war office says that near Kiselin and Svinitsky in Volhynia violent attacks by the Teutonic allies were repulsed, while Berlin records the capture of Russian trenches on the western bank of the Stohod and the repulse with heavy casualties of Russian attacks near Bubnow.

South of Zborow in Galicia several enterprises have been carried out successfully by the Austrians, while at other points Russian attacks were put down.

Having held the Teutonic allies in the mountain passes on the Transylvania-Rumania border for several days, the Rumanians have taken the offensive at various points and now are declared to be pushing back their adversaries, who are leaving prisoners and guns in the hands of the Rumanians. Berlin, however, controverts this statement by the assertion that the Austro-Germans are engaged in successful fighting in the mountain passes. The Bulgarians in the vicinity of Monastir are bringing up reinforcements and a large number of trench mortars.

Except on Mount Pabiso in the Trentino region where the Austrians in violent attacks recaptured positions taken Tuesday by the Italians only to be driven out again, artillery duels are taking place in the Austro-Italian theater.

TWO PRISONERS BREAK OUT OF PEORIA JAIL

Overpower Turnkey a Few Minutes After Their Arrest—Sheriff Offers Reward.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 19.—Requests to police officers throughout Illinois to be on watch for Martin Brophy and Louis Mowry, who broke jail here a few minutes after their arrest last night after overpowering the turnkey, were sent out by Sheriff Lucas Butts today.

Brophy's escape was his second, he having broken jail here in 1908 while awaiting trial on a charge of murder. He was arrested in Oklahoma and brought back here for a hearing. He was convicted and after serving part of his sentence was paroled and later re-arrested on a charge of assaulting with intent to kill, the night marshal of Averyville, a suburb.

Mowry, who escaped with Brophy, was awaiting trial on a charge of highway robbery, he having held up a street car several weeks ago and robbed the conductor of a large sum of money.

Harry King, convicted and sentenced to death on a charge of murder, awaiting outcome of his appeal to the supreme court, also was a party to the plot but was forced back to his cell at the point of a shotgun. Sheriff Butts today offered rewards of $100 each for the capture of the two men, dead or alive.

DONOVAN SIGNS TO MANAGE YANKEES

New York, Oct. 19.—Wm. Donovan signed a contract today to manage the New York American League Baseball club for the season of 1917, according to Captain T. L. Hugdon, half owner of the club. Donovan became manager of the club in 1915.

FIELD MARSHAL VON KLUCK RETIRED

BERLIN, Oct. 19.—via London.—Field Marshal Alexander H. R. Von Kluck, who commanded the right wing of the German army in its sweep towards Paris in the fall of 1914, has been placed on the retired list at his own request. He never returned to the front after he was wounded by shrapnel in March, 1915, while inspecting advanced positions. The field marshal was 70 years old last May.

Field Marshal Von Kluck and his army took an important part in the German advance toward Paris in September, 1914. His advance halted about thirty miles from the French capital and his force with the rest of the German army was checked and driven back in the battle of the Marne.

Field Marshal Von Kluck was born in Muenster, Germany, May 20th, 1846, and entered the German army as a second lieutenant in 1865. At the outbreak of the war he was in command of the army corps at Koenigsberg.

CHARGES HEALY GAVE TWO SETS OF INSTRUCTIONS

Suspended Police Capt. Makes Accusations At Hearing.

Asserts Confidential Order was Constructed to Mean Captains Should Wink At Violators and Make As Few Arrests As Possible.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—The direct charge of having given police captains two sets of instructions for dealing with the vice situation was made against Chief of Police Healy today. One order, the accusation said, was in writing for the benefit of the public. It was that the law must be enforced strictly and rigidly. The other was in confidence and orally and was construed to mean the district commanders should wink at violations and make as few arrests as possible.

"Anything you can get by with. I have no stool pigeons out," the chief was said to have told the men. The accusations were made by W. P. O'Brien, suspended police captain in the hearing on the application of State's Attorney Hoyne for warrants for Chief Healy and his secretary, William Luthardt.

"It was at one of the captains' meetings," said O'Brien, amplifying his statement. "The chief said: 'Some of you captains are in the habit of sending men down to this office to say that certain things are all right with you if the chief will O. K. them. What I want to say is that anything you can get by with in your district is all right with this office. I have no stool pigeons out. The department is unwatched now. The food is on your shoulders. The gambling squad has been abandoned and will not be re-organized until you men force me to it.'"

Counsel for Chief Healy sought to bring out that the order not to make arrests for Sunday closing violations was the result of the state's attorney failing to prosecute. Chief Justice Olson, who is conducting the hearing ruled that the question was relevant.

"Inasmuch as the state's attorney is trying to impeach the chief, it is only right that it should be shown that the state's attorney also failed to do his duty in that he refused to arrest men when the state's attorney wouldn't prosecute, the effect would be reflected in the department."

ADOPT PRAYER FOR THE ARMY AND NAVY

Militarist Clashes with Pacifist in Debate at Episcopal Convention.

St. Louis, Oct. 19.—Militarist clashed with pacifist in a debate on prayer in the house of deputies of the Protestant Episcopal general convention here today.

The issue arose over the proposal of the commission on the enrichment of the book of common prayer with prayers for the army and the navy. The prayer finally adopted, was recommended by the commission. It asked the "Lord, God of hosts—to strengthen and protect the soldiers of our country; support them in the day of battle and in time of peace keep them safe from evil."

It also pleaded that "in all things they may serve without reproach." A similar prayer for the navy was adopted. One faction led by the Rev. John Howard Mellich of Brooklyn, held that any war is un-Christian and no Christian may serve without reproach. The other of which the Rev. Leighton Parks of New York was the spokesman, while not championing war, argued that it is the duty of the church to pray for those men who forsake civil pursuits for the service of their country.

A rescue car from the Pittsburgh station of the bureau of mines arrived tonight.

About 250 men are ordinarily employed in the mine but owing to a shortage in cars they were not working today.

The only rear-platform speech of the trip today was made at Jefferson City, Mo., where Colonel Roosevelt called attention to the Lusitania incident and declared "the crime was the result of foreigners being of the opinion that America did not mean what they said."

"And they were right," he concluded.

Several men formerly allied with Colonel Roosevelt in the Progressive party, met the special here. William Allen White, one of the party, boarded the train here and rode with Colonel Roosevelt as far as Emporia, Kans., his home.

Colonel Roosevelt promised to make a short stay in Emporia en route from here to the southwest to speak in Albuquerque, N. M., and Phoenix, Ariz.

HUGHES ENDS THIRD CAMPAIGN TOUR

Nominee Replies to Recent Utterance of Secretary McAdoo

MEANT WHAT HE SAID

G. O. P. Candidate Answers Statement Attributed To Secretary Baker

LEAVES FOR NEW YORK

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 19.—Charles E. Hughes, reiterating that he meant what he said in Louisville the other night about the course he would have followed with reference to the Lusitania, replied tonight to a recent utterance of Secretary McAdoo with the declaration that apparently it seemed impossible to the administration that one could mean what he said.

"Now rises the secretary of the treasury to complain that this was not a statement of what I would have done had the sinking occurred," Mr. Hughes said, after reiterating that he would have stated his position "unequivocally" in advance of the sinking. "I was under the impression that when I said what I would do, every one would know that I stated what in fact I would have done in the described event. The secretary's remarks show in an illuminating way this administration's conception of the value of words."

"It apparently seems impossible to this administration that one can mean what he says. That is its difficulty. With it, a threat of action does not seem to mean anything but words. My position is somewhat different."

"I mean what I say and because this would have been well known and we should already had a reputation for firm and correct policies I repeat that the Lusitania would not have been sunk."

Mr. Hughes spoke before an audience in the theatre here. He also replied to a statement attributed to Secretary of War Baker in a recent speech in which Washington's soldiers in the march to Valley Forge in the days of the American revolution were said to be just as bad characters as the Mexicans.

"I never supposed the day would come," Mr. Hughes said, "when the representative of an American administration would say that of those who gave us our liberties."

After quoting the statement attributed to Secretary Baker, Mr. Hughes read from Secretary Lansing's description in June last of the atrocities in Mexico, contained in a note to the de facto government of Mexico. Mr. Lansing's recital of the civil strife in Mexico, with its attendant loss of American life and destruction of American property, and that portion of the note relating to the Santa Ysabel massacre were read by Mr. Hughes verbatim.

"An administration imbued with the spirit of true Americanism," Mr. Hughes said, "would be incapable of the statement attributed to the secretary of war. It must bring the blush of shame to the cheek of every American that apologizes for the deplorable record in Mexico should be made after this fashion."

Mr. Hughes' speech here tonight was the last of his third presidential campaign trip. He left here at 11 P. M. for New York where he is due tomorrow afternoon. The day was spent traveling with three short addresses at Bay City, Saginaw and Flint, Mich. It was raining and the damp weather affected the nominee's voice.

UTILITY PEACE MAY COME

The effort which is to be made on the part of representatives of the city and of the Jacksonville Railway & Light company to get together on a compromise proposition is to be commended. It has been frequently stated in these columns, as well as elsewhere, that the interests of the utility company and the people are so interlocked that only by a working together can the mutual interests be conserved. To continue the strained relations which have prevailed for some time and to carry existing differences thru a long period of litigation, will mean injury for all parties concerned. Possibly from the conference there may come "peace with honor" for both parties to the controversies.

When Judge Thompson at the close of the formal inquiry yesterday suggested that the citizens and the company should get together on some compromise proposition that was fair to both, he met with a show of responsiveness from both parties. Judge Thompson during this informal conference which lasted half an hour, did not permit the conversation to include references to what had been done or what had not been done in the past. He believed that discussion about past differences and grievances would lead only further apart, and he insisted on shaping the discussion about the future with the single exception that he suggested the previous compromise offer be taken as the basis for an understanding now. In the past Mayor Rodgers, representing the city council, and Dr. Bowe, representing the petitioners in the rate case, have taken the ground that the commission finding as given must stand and that there should be no compromise unless this compromise came from the commission. The suggestion of compromise yesterday was not from the commission as an organization but was given by Judge Thompson informally and as a citizen of Jacksonville, greatly interested in its welfare. But this action was enough to wipe out the objections and as a result a conference will be held in Springfield next Tuesday, when an endeavor will be made to reach a satisfactory agreement.

Mr. Chubbuck's contention is that the company should be allowed the rates previously offered in compromise with the addition of a sum sufficient to pay the increased fuel costs which have come since that proposal was made. Whether or not the conference Tuesday will result in an agreement cannot be foretold, but the very fact that both parties to the proposed arrangement are now ready and willing to confer is a favorable feature. The situation amounts simply to a "gentlemen's agreement" to confer. The figures are to be made and if they seem fair to the representatives of the city they will probably give the agreement their approval. If this action is taken they will be influenced by the fact that such an agreement contemplates the withdrawal of objections to paying on the part of the Railway & Light company, the settlement of franchise questions and, in fact, an end of all litigation.

It is too early to forecast just what will be the result of Tuesday's conference but certainly the great majority of the citizens of Jacksonville will welcome a day when the people of the city and the representatives of the utility company are working mutually for the interests of the city and the company and these interests are not considered antagonistic.

Some months ago the Journal stated that in view of all conditions the logical course seemed to be to go forward with the pending litigation in order to definitely determine the rights of the city and the company. This view is somewhat modified by present conditions, and as a result of the conference next Tuesday it may seem preferable and for the interest of the city to agree upon a compromise plan.

The Navy's "Steel Arm."

When Congressman Rainey talks about the "steel arm of the navy" and the comprehensive plans of the Democrats for increasing the navy, he must have forgotten. The congressman should turn the pages back and refer to that Democratic agreement whereby every member of the house was forbidden to vote for the construction of even one battleship a year. Subsequently the agreement was modified so that each Democrat might vote for one battleship. The naval program of the Republican majority up to that time had been two battleships and a cruiser each year.

Roosevelt's Effective Work.

Judging from the address of Congressman Rainey at the court house last night, Colonel Roosevelt must be doing some Herculean labors for Republican success. The congressman devoted much of his time to an arraignment of Mr. Roosevelt's record. Judged by political history Colonel Roosevelt is a mighty active foe to fight. His record has been exceptional for the hold he has maintained directly upon the people. Four years ago it was recognized everywhere that he was nineteenth of the Progressive movement. Speaking locally and in a wider way, the great majority of men who voted the Progressive ticket were "for Roosevelt" and they didn't care on what ticket he might be running. That belief in Mr. Roosevelt has continued, for the people have had no reason for losing faith, and so it is not at all surprising that the former president's utterances and activities in behalf of Mr. Hughes are drawing the fire of the Democratic orators.

SALE OF JERSEY CATTLE.

Attention is called to the dispersion sale of Jersey Cattle to be held on the farm of the late Charles S. French, near Chapin, next Tuesday, notice of which appears in another column. Any one desiring a good family cow will do well to attend this sale. The reputation of the gentlemen in charge is a guarantee that everything offered will be sold and will prove to be as good or a little better than represented. Conveyances will meet all trains and no effort will be spared to make your visit both pleasant and profitable.

JUSTICE COURTS.

R. W. Wilkinson and B. O. Wilkinson were given a preliminary hearing in Justice Dyer's court Thursday and were placed under bond in the sum of $500, each to await the action of the grand jury. H. J. Rodgers went on the bonds. The case is that wherein the Wilkinsons representing a nursery company sold a number of trees to Miss Estelle Blackburn. Miss Blackburn afterward wished to cancel the order but signed a paper which was found to be a promissory note for $3,000.

RELATION OF TARIFF TO FARM PRODUCTS

Big Total of Agricultural Imports Before War Came on For Relief

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 19.—The Democratic tariff law transferred most of the farmers' products from the dutiable to the free list.

Of 22 agricultural products 17 were placed on the free list. The others were reduced 60 per cent. Cattle, wool, beef, mutton, corn, eggs, milk and cream were made free.

During the fiscal year 1914, or rather in the ten months peace period of the Wilson administration preceding the war, compared with a corresponding period during the preceding Republican year, the imports of certain agricultural products increased from $72,694,000 to $174,022,000. In three months during the fiscal year 1914, according to the Democratic boast, the imports of cattle increased from 112,000 head to 341,000 head; corn from 233,000 bushels to 4,450,000 bushels; meat from $65,000 pounds to $5,000,000 pounds.

Wheat declined in prices 15 cents a bushel; corn declined 10 cents. The prices of cattle and sheep went down. The cost of living at the same time went up or, at least, remained the same for the consumer.

The Corn Products Company and the Standard Starch company bought much of the imported corn. Most of the beef was imported from the South American plants of the Chicago packers. In the same fashion the revenue lost to the people on free sugar went to the sugar refiners, not to the people.

Will this situation be restored after the war?

OLD-TIME MINSTREL IN WANT.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 19.—Members of the theatrical profession and the older generation of playgoers who have laughed in their youth at the gulps and jests of Hughey Dougherty will be asked to contribute to a fund to insure the old monarch of minstrelsy from want in his last years. Bent with age and broken health, the man who in his time was a top-liner among black face comedians arrived in Philadelphia recently, penniless and apparently without friends. Because of his mental condition he has now been confined in the Pennsylvania Hospital for the Insane.

As far back as the period immediately following the civil war and down to a comparatively recent date Hughey Dougherty has been a well known figure on the stage. For many years he was one of the most popular of "end men" with the big minstrel shows appearing with Haverly, Dockstader, Primrose and West, and other of the leading minstrel organizations. When the popularity of the minstrel shows began to wane Dougherty took to the vaudeville stage. As a monologue artist he had few peers in his day. Now he has been overtaken by old age and broken health and the stage will know him no more. An effort is to be made to raise sufficient funds to place him in a home where he will be well cared for in his declining years.

Bradley of the Federal Children's Bureau.

Vineland, N. J., Oct. 19.—Entries will close tomorrow for the international egg-laying and breeding contest to be conducted under the auspices of the New Jersey State Agricultural Experiment Station with the aid of a special appropriation made by the state. The contest will be opened the first of next month and will be continued for three years. The objects of the contest are to improve the methods and add to the general knowledge of poultry husbandry, thus developing the greatest usefulness of all varieties of hens. One hundred pens of ten birds each, one pen to constitute an entry, will be used in the contest.

PEACE MAY BE DECLARED BETWEEN CITY AND LOCAL UTILITIES COMPANY

CONFERENCE OVER COMPROMISE WILL BE HELD IN SPRINGFIELD TUESDAY

City and Company Representatives Agreed to Informal Suggestion Made by Judge Thompson that Common Ground of Settlement Should Be Found — Inadequacy of Mains Declared At Hearing To Be Cause of Poor Gas Service — Street Car Franchise Is Worthless Says Attorney Green

The hearing on the local gas service situation before Judge Owen P. Thompson of the utility commission dragged along all day Thursday in the circuit court room. The real interest of the day came after the hearing had been adjourned when Judge Thompson, addressing the principals in the utility differences which have been afloat at various times during the past two years, suggested that a compromise would be the best course for both the company and the city.

Interests are Mutual.
"The utility company cannot prosper and get along in any satisfactory way," said Judge Thompson, "unless it has the patronage and the good will of the people. On the other hand the citizens of this city need the service which the utility company can supply. In many ways your interests are in common, and the thing to do by all means if you possibly can, is to get together on some fair reasonable basis."

Standing in the group when this statement was made were Mayor H. J. Rodgers, Dr. Edward Bowe, General Manager H. E. Chubbuck of the Illinois Traction company; H. I. Green, chief of counsel for the company; Thomas Worthington, who appeared as city attorney in the absence of Mr. Reeve; J. Edgar Martin, city commissioner; E. H. Gray, superintendent of the Jacksonville Railway & Light company, and several citizens.

A spirited debate began at once, with Judge Thompson as the referee. Mayor Rodgers and Dr. Bowe on the one hand and Mr. Green and Mr. Chubbuck on the other, showed some tendency to talk of past differences and give the why and wherefore that no agreement had been reached. But Judge Thompson asked them not to discuss the past happenings but to earnestly consider whether or not they would be willing to confer over a compromise plan. "Will you now accept the compromise offer you made to the city several months ago?" said Judge Thompson to Mr. Chubbuck. The latter after some hesitation replied that he would if the city would add to that offer a sum sufficient to cover the increased price in coal since the offer was originally made.

Agree to Compromise Conference.
Then the question was put direct to Dr. Bowe and Mayor Rodgers as to whether they would consent to a consideration of that proposal. Both expressed their willingness to do so if it was understood that any agreement reached should carry with it the definite understanding that paying and all other differences with the company were to be settled at the same time. Commissioner Martin expressed his agreement with the views of Mayor Rodgers.

It was the agreement that a conference will be held in Springfield in the utility commission offices next Tuesday, when representatives of the utility company will meet the city officials, the petitioners in the rate case and any others who may wish to be present. Members of the utility commission will not attend, but accountants or other attaches will be at the disposal of the conferees. Judge Thompson indicated that the commission would approve any agreement reached between the city and the company.

Complaints Brought Citation.
The hearing began at 10 o'clock Thursday morning with a good number of citizens in the gallery of spectators. H. I. Green represented the company and Frank W. Sullivan, assistant attorney for the utility commission, and Thomas Worthington appeared on behalf of the citizens of Jacksonville. Mayor Rodgers, Commissioners Cox and Martin, Dr. Bowe and Dr. Baker were present during the hearing.

The hearing was had on citation issued two weeks ago by the utility commission directed against the Jacksonville Railway & Light company and directing that they show why they are not conforming to the utility commission standard of gas service as outlined in rule 17 A adopted by the company in 1914. The citation was issued following the receipt of a number of complaints from Jacksonville citizens of inadequacy and inefficiency of gas service. Subsequent to the receipt of these complaints the commission sent representatives to the city to conduct an investigation. This investigation was made mainly by A. S. B. Little, gas engineer for the commission, and Freeman Fletcher, assistant gas engineer.

Briefly stated, the utility representatives found that the complaints by citizens were justified by the facts and that the gas service is not up to the standard required by the commission. On the other hand, the company acknowledged that the service has not been up to the commission standard but excused this inefficiency on the ground that the service would be better if the company could secure permission from the city council to make certain extensions of mains.

Street Railway Franchise Valueless.
A great deal of interest was added to the hearing by the statement of Mr. Green that the franchise of the Jacksonville Railway company is not worth one cent. He said that if conditions continue as they are, that it can only mean some method of disposing of the property here, either thru receivership or otherwise. The statement was made also by Mr. Chubbuck that the gas business in Jacksonville does not pay more than five per cent on the investment. He stated, however, that the electric service does pay at the present rates but that the earning capacity of the plant would not be seven per cent if the rates ordered by the commission are permitted to stand.

Further it was the statement of Mr. Green that the reason the company had determined to carry the case to the U. S. supreme court if necessary was because of the effect the ruling of the commission would have on other properties owned by the company. The company has taken particular exception to the position of the commission that the earnings of the gas and electrical business must be kept separate from the railway system operation. The company maintains that the three separate departments owned by the one company should be operated and accounted for as one business. Only in this way, he said, was it possible to operate a railway line in a city of this size profitably.

Better Mains Needed.
Mr. Little was the first witness and his testimony was given at length. He first qualified by telling his position with the commission and relating his experience in the gas business. He read a report made after his recent investigation of conditions here, a report which had not previously been made a part of the commission records. In this report and in his testimony as brought out thru questions by counsel, Mr. Little stated that if a connecting main 300 feet in length were laid on Anna street between Prairie and Diamond that the service in the southwest part of the city would be greatly improved. He recommended a further increase in the size of the main on South Main street from 4 inches to 8 inches. He said that the company's plans showed an 8 inch main there, whereas on investigation it developed that a 4 inch main is in service. He said further that the proposed new main on West State street would be beneficial.

Larger Service Pipes the Rule.
He advocated further "that the company should renew service pipes from the mains to private properties at a more rapid rate than is being done. The service pipes now used are an inch and a quarter in diameter whereas the old practice was to install pipes three quarters in diameter. Mr. Little also made a suggestion that the use of well water in cooling the gas and a change in the pipe carrying gas from the holder to the mains, both with a view to maintaining a temperature which would result in less condensation after the gas reaches the mains.

The witness described how rust in the service pipes may interfere with the gas and told something of the injury done by naphthalene in the mains. He stated that the service here would be greatly improved by the changes in the mains, although some changes at the plant are advisable.

Mr. Green in his cross examination of the witness brought out that some of the suggestions made by Mr. Little for the improvement of the service are already in effect and said that the suggestions of Mr. Little were gladly received by the company. The purpose of the company's attorney was plainly to lay the burden for poor service upon the city council because of the refusal to let the company lay new mains in certain streets.

The Council's Proposition.
Mayor Rodgers on the witness stand frankly admitted that the refusal had been given because of the company's attitude with reference to public improvements. He said that the council had felt that because of the company's attitude on various matters, that the time had come to have a court decision on who has control of the streets in Jacksonville.

The fact that the company had asked permission was put into the record by the testimony of City Clerk R. L. Pyatt.
Dr. Edward Bowe when on the witness stand reviewed conditions surrounding the Jacksonville rate case and expressed the hope that the commission would not enter any order instructing the city to permit the laying of the cold by the company because of the effect this might have upon future affairs. He intimated that if there was no improvement in service and the agreement was not reached with the company, that citizens might find it advisable to go before the commission and ask for certificate of convenience and necessity for the establishment of a utility company that would provide satisfactory service.

Judge Thompson near the close of the hearing said that in his mind there was no doubt but that the utility company could be compelled to pay for the pavement between and adjoining the rails in this city just as is done in every other city in the state. Judge Thompson indicated that he would take the matter under advisement and that he did not know what the commission decision would be. He said that the commission had no control over the city of Jacksonville and could not order the city to permit the company to lay the mains in question. The commission might order the company to lay the mains and then let the matter be thrashed out by the city and the company. Mr. Green maintained that no such order should be given by the commission unless it was shown that the company had refused to do the work in question.

Get Together Suggestion.
Just before the formal adjournment Judge Thompson suggested indirectly, when he referred to the mutual interests of the city and the company, that the best course for all concerned would be some compromise agreement based upon a proposition fair to all. Then after the hearing had adjourned the veiled suggestion of a compromise became a reality when Judge Thompson approached a group of men about the table and asked a series of questions which led to the conference agreement already detailed above. The main paragraphs in the report of conditions of service here, made by A. S. B. Little and used in his testimony, are as follows:

"In accordance with instructions received from the chief engineer I visited Jacksonville on Oct. 5, 1916, for the purpose of investigating the gas service conditions. In the main, I was able to corroborate the statements made in the report of Assistant Engineer Freeman Fletcher, and I am in general accord with the suggestions he has made.

The Local Situation.

There has been no attempt on the part of the company officials at Jacksonville to show that the service given to the consumers of gas is satisfactory. There is no desire on the part of the local executives to claim that the service rules of the commission are being complied with. The company appears to be anxious to carry on certain construction work, and has already ordered and received delivery of a considerable amount of material required for extending and rehabilitating the distribution system.

I made no attempt to meet or talk with the city authorities during my visit, but had a conversation with the mayor when I met him on Main street during the time I was inspecting an opening made in the streets for the purpose of connecting a new service.

I was told by Mayor Rodgers that the city would not grant any favors to the company, taking the position that the company wishes the three sections of the utility to be considered as one, in the matter of earnings, whereas the company desires to be treated separately by the city authorities when it comes to the consideration of the use of the streets.

I asked the mayor if there would be any objection to the laying of a 300-foot length of main in Anna street, this being the critical point in the distribution system, which affects, not only the southwest part of town, in which the main is located, but seriously interferes with the supply of gas, at adequate pressure, to the north, northwest and northeast parts of the city.

The mayor did not appear to be very emphatic in his refusal to allow the company to lay this particular short section of main but again stated, in a general way, that the city would grant no favors to the utility.

It is far from my intention to interfere in any local controversy regarding the use of the streets of Jacksonville by the Jacksonville Railway & Light Company, and there has been and will be no attempt to take sides in this matter. My report is based solely upon the desire of the engineering department of this commission to see that the citizens of Jacksonville are assisted in every way in their effort to secure satisfactory service at least equal to the rules laid down in the order of the commission issued in November, 1914.

I may say, however, that it would appear, from conversation with the mayor, that the city asserts the company has no franchise and the company, according to statement, admits this when it comes to a question of an assessment against the company to meet part of the cost of repaving the streets. The company appears to claim that the various utilities operated by the Jacksonville Railway & Light Company, and controlled by the Illinois Traction Company, should be considered as separate entities in reference to the opening and use of streets, but, on the other hand, claims that the company is to be considered as a unit in the fixing of rates.

Policy of the Company.
The company claims that it is unable to give service because of the refusal of the city to let it open the streets to lay mains.

The company is not blameless in this matter, because as far back as 1914 I reported to the commission that the company ought to be compelled to investigate the service conditions and take steps to put the mains and services in shape to properly serve the consumers.

In testimony in case No. 2698, it is claimed, and not disputed by the utility, that the mains and services were in a deplorable condition. Until the advent of the new general manager at Jacksonville very little if any attempt appears to have been made following this recommendation of the rehabilitation of the distribution system. It is true the present management is hampered in carrying out improvements by its inability to open streets for the laying of new mains, but it is hampered in reference to work on individual service pipes only to the extent of the charge of $12.50 per opening made by the city, when said openings are made in paved streets by city employees.

The company executives at Jacksonville expressed a wish to lay new mains. They are at present ready to commence work, but if delayed much longer they will be unable to complete any section of the work, by reason of adverse climatic conditions likely to be encountered before next spring.

The wish of the company is expressed in a tangible manner by the ordering, on April 6, 1916, of a considerable quantity of pipe. Requisition was made on that date for:

7800 feet of 12-inch diameter cast iron pipe.
2250 feet of 8-inch diameter cast iron pipe.
300 feet of 6-inch diameter cast iron pipe.
2000 feet of 4-inch diameter cast iron pipe.

No definite plan has been decided upon in reference to the new mains, and the specials that will be required have not yet been ordered. The number and sizes of these specials will depend, of course, upon the route to be followed.

In addition to the mains ordered and delivered as above, representing an outlay of over $11,000, the company has ordered and received delivery of about $1,000 worth of lead required in making the joints. I am attaching hereto a sketch showing the tentative plans of the company for the laying of new mains, as developed previous to the change in the management at Jacksonville. I am not altogether in favor of this arrangement, and after discussion with the experienced foreman in charge of the distribution system at Jacksonville, I will say that the main, as ordered, can be used to better advantage in a manner accessible to the present local executives of the company.

I do not presume to say that alterations to the distribution system will follow my amended plan, as no final arrangement of the new mains should be attempted without a

There is a reason for all things and the reason for that is this:

The base or ash pit of an Estate Oak is all cast in one piece thus eliminating many inches of cracks and joints found in the base of the ordinary stove, (that is filled with stove putty).

Ash pit door is fitted paper tight.

Patented Screw Registers are also fitted paper tight.

thorough study of the consumption conditions in the various districts served by the present distribution system. At the same time I believe that there would be very little difficulty in arranging, at a conference with the local executives, for a comprehensive plan in laying new mains according to agreement that can be reached between the engineers of the commission and the local executives of the utility.

It will be seen from the foregoing information, which was secured from the records of the company, that while leakage has been reduced, it is still very great. Indeed, it was lower during the first six months of 1916, as against 1915, by 2.69 per cent; but a comparison of the months of 1916 and 1914 shows that the improvement is not very great except in July, and this percentage of 11.03 for July, 1916, may be more apparent than real. It can be accurately gauged only by taking into account similar information for the months of August, September and October, 1916, when this information is available.

The report shows that there ought to be a considerable reduction in the amount of unaccounted for gas, due to the fact that in the first six months of 1916 the company spent for maintenance of the distribution system $867.37 more than it spent in a similar period in 1915.

Plant Conditions.
The plant seems to be operated much better since the change in managers, although it is not yet all that could be desired, due, perhaps, more to design than to the control.

A considerable amount of trouble in the distribution system is due to condensation, and it appears to me that some of this might be obviated if a change was made in the handling of the gas through the machines at the plant.

The plant contains no coal-gas, P. & A. tar extractor. It will be seen that the temperature of the gas in the part of the plant gets as low as the temperature met at nearly every part of the distribution system. In consequence, condensable hydrocarbons are carried into the mains and there deposited when temperatures are reached below the lowest temperature found in the plant.

I believe the company is willing and anxious to make improvements in the operation of its plant, and I therefore do not offer definite instructions concerning a change in the method of handling the temperature conditions, but suggest that in the interests of the company it would be better to remove the tar by a frictional extractor, before the temperature of the gas is reduced below 100 degrees, instead of allowing the gas and the tarry vapors to travel along together and be removed by the wash-box where the temperature is below 82 degrees. This would improve results, increase the quality of the gas, and, to a certain extent, alleviate the troubles from naphthalene in the distribution system.

The only other criticism I have to offer regarding the operation of the plant is the use of a foul main from the primary condenser to the exhauster in which the main is located in the open and therefore subject to atmospheric conditions. In my opinion this exposed main is responsible, to a large extent, for naphthalene troubles in the distribution system, as well as in the plant, due to a sudden chilling of the hot gases during those periods when the atmospheric temperature is low.

HUGHES SENTIMENT GROWS IN STATE

Reaction Has Come In Feeling—
"Kept Us Out of War Slogan"
Has Its Effect In Some Quarters.
Hughes' Great Record Is Foundation
Stone of Alliance.

M. S. Mullen, field secretary for the Hughes Alliance of Illinois, was a visitor in Jacksonville yesterday and will spend today in Bloomington. Mr. Mullen has been engaged in the work of the alliance for a number of months past and has visited every county in the state, part of the counties several times. The national Hughes alliance is patterned along the same lines of the New York alliance, which was organized at the time Mr. Hughes was governor of New York and gave him such hearty support that his second term was made possible.

Rights of People First.
Governor Hughes' administration was characterized by his independence of action in making the rights of the people first consideration. As governor and in no other position has he ever been a man of expediency. Instead he has always made up his mind on whatever course he thought right and best and then followed that course regardless of the results to himself. Naturally this course got him into conflict with some of the prominent New York politicians. It thus became necessary for him to take his cause to the people in a number of instances wherein opposition developed from the politicians to legislation really desirable for the people. This situation led to the organization of the Hughes alliance. It was non-political and men of all parties who wanted to support the Hughes policies belonged.

The national alliance carries out this same idea and has given the opportunity for the banding together of men and women, who, after a careful study of Mr. Hughes' record, would like to see him president of the United States. The movement has grown to such proportions that it really forms a large factor in the campaign.

Adamson Law Reaction.
Mr. Mullen said last night that his visits all over the state have convinced him of the strength of Mr. Hughes, the sentiment in favor of the Republican candidate having increased steadily as weeks have gone by. Mr. Mullen is convinced of a great change in the attitude of the labor vote in this state, now that the Adamson bill is well in the retrospect. Immediately after the passage of the Adamson bill Mr. Mullen found a decided sentiment in favor of Mr. Wilson on the part of the labor vote, but with passing days and weeks, as there came an understanding of what the law really meant and its probable effect, this feeling has changed.

A number of the lawyers for the railroad organizations, it is said, have expressed the opinion that the Adamson law will not stand the test of the supreme court. Moreover, Mr. Wilson has made the open avowal that as soon as congress convenes he will ask for the passage of a compulsory arbitration law. Neither railroad organizations nor the Federation of Labor want this law and so labor voters are beginning to see that the Adamson law did not give them what they want and that they are likely to get a compulsory arbitration law which will be distasteful to them.

"Kept Us Out of War."
Mr. Mullen concedes that there is quite a sentiment among women in the state favorable to President Wilson, this interest having been built up on the slogan of "Wilson kept us out of war." The fact that a sentiment favorable to President Wilson has been built up on this slogan shows lack of consideration of the facts. "Anybody knows," said Mr. Mullen, "that President Wilson has not kept us out of war, since no country has wanted war with us, and, in fact, has used every effort to keep out of conflict. On the other hand, the president's wabbling policy has kept the country on the verge of war. An example of the effect of this policy is seen in the case of England's interference with our mail. This interference has been the occasion for a series of notes from this country and the last reply given by England just a few days ago is of an entirely unsatisfactory kind and in reality concedes nothing. In contrast with this situation consider the case of Sweden. That little country made a protest to England on account of mail interference and no satisfaction was given. In retaliation Sweden promptly began interference with English mail and that action very promptly brought England to the concession wanted.

Study Hughes' Record.
"The real facts about the Wilson relationship to war and to international policy are beginning to have their effect and the sentiment of women is changing. As they become familiar with the record of Mr. Hughes as governor of New York and in other positions and capacities they are firmly convinced that he is a man who can safely be trusted to do right and to keep the interests of the people constantly paramount."

"I have found as I have gone through the state that the German vote is for Mr. Hughes. For a time after Colonel Roosevelt entered the campaign, especially after his Battle Creek speech, there were indications that there would be a considerable loss of the German Republican element, but that is past now and these German Republicans are convinced that if Mr. Hughes is elected president that he will not be dominated by any person or set of persons, but will administer the affairs of the country in accordance with his views of the right. Mr. Hughes has announced the policy of 'America first' on which the German-Americans and no other loyal citizen can take exception."

Charles F. Shibe and family were city callers from Nebo yesterday.

DEMOCRATS HEARD MR. RAINEY SPEAKS

Congressman Claimed Long List of Legislative Achievements for His Party—Severe in Arrangement of Col. Roosevelt—"Arm of Steel" Needed to Enforce Neutrality Conditions.

If Congressman Rainey's speech at the court house Thursday evening is indicative of the frame of mind of the leaders of the Democratic party, then Theodore Roosevelt is the "bogie man" who is causing them to see things at night.

Mr. Rainey spoke to an audience that comfortably filled the circuit court room. The speaker reviewed briefly the various bills the passage of which he credited to the Democratic party. The main portion of his speech was an arraignment of Mr. Roosevelt for statements he has made in his recent campaign speeches.

"The paramount issue of this campaign," said Mr. Rainey, "is peace because the Republicans have made it so." In closing Mr. Rainey said that he believed that the women, who have suffrage would vote according to the dictates of their conscience and if they did the Democratic party had no fear of the result.

Legislative Advances.
The meeting was called to order by A. D. Arnold, chairman of the Democratic central committee. He introduced William N. Haigrove as chairman. Mr. Haigrove in a few well chosen words introduced Congressman Rainey.

Congressman Rainey referred to the federal reserve act, Federal Farm loan law, the farm labor bureau and the parcel post act as some of the beneficial legislation that has been passed by the Democrats under President Wilson.

"Mr. Hughes," said the speaker, "is claiming that the federal reserve act was built from material gathered by the Republicans. This is not true as it is based entirely on investigations made by the Democrats."

Mr. Rainey then took a fling at the denseness of former Republican administration, when he said "The federal farm loan law is so simple that I marvel that the Republican party did not see it in the fifty years they were in power."

The Question in a New Light.
During the present campaign and for several months before it began there was much talk of peace and war. The phrase, "Wilson has kept us out of war," has become familiar throughout the land. Thursday evening Mr. Rainey presented it in a new manner.

After referring to the various bills Mr. Rainey said, "But what is over and above all else and the thing which the Democrats point to with the greatest pride is that President Wilson has kept this great country at peace. That is the paramount issue."

Because, said the speaker, "the Republicans have made it so." Mr. Rainey then launched into an arraignment of former president Roosevelt. He reviewed at length Roosevelt's career as a private citizen, a soldier and as president of the United States. He referred frequently to statements from Mr. Roosevelt's recent speeches in support of Mr. Hughes.

After finishing Mr. Roosevelt to a Democratic turn, Mr. Rainey drawing a graphic picture of the horrors of war in Europe and comparing them with the splendid conditions of peace in this country grew rather belligerent.

Now Strong for "Steel Hand."
He said, "We are now preparing to correct some of the mistakes made by former Republican administration. We have laid the foundation for a navy that will give us power to force neutrality on the high seas and command the respect of the world. We have found," said Mr. Rainey, "that behind the diplomatic notes and nicely worded phrase must be the steel hand of authority."

In closing the speaker said that the question of war and peace was largely a moral question. He believed the women would vote according to the dictates of their own conscience. If they did he knew what the result would be.

Judge Clarence Jones of Springfield, candidate for the legislature on the Democratic ticket was introduced and spoke briefly. The meeting then adjourned.

Dr. Black Reads Paper on "Fractures"—Meeting of District Society Announced for Nov. 9—Dine at Hospital.

One of the most profitable meetings of recent months was held Thursday at Passavant hospital when members of the Morgan County Medical society assembled for the October session. The paper was given by Dr. Carl E. Black, who presented the subject "Fractures" in interesting manner.

Physicians present from out of the city were Dr. Richard Valentine Tallula, Dr. J. M. Elder, Franklin; Dr. W. A. Skeel, Kampsville, and Dr. Smith, Roodhouse.

Jacksonville physicians present were Drs. F. A. Norris, C. E. Black, T. O. Hardesty, G. E. Baxter, A. J. Ogram, E. L. Crouch, D. W. Reid, A. L. Adams, E. D. Canatsey, W. P. Duncan, A. M. King, C. E. Cole, P. C. Thompson, Josephine Milligan, G. R. Bradley, H. A. Chapin, T. G. McLin, H. C. Wolfman and W. L. Frank.

Dr. Black's paper was discussed by Mrs. Norris, Reid and Chapin. Drs. Adams, Smith, Milligan and Black took part in discussion of the Blackin law.

Invitation from Dr. E. L. Hill was read requesting the presence of members of the Morgan County Medical society and the Medical club next Saturday evening to hear Dr. Sanger of the state psychopathic institute.

The Illinois Medical Society of the west central portion will meet in Jacksonville Nov. 9. In the forenoon, clinics will be held at both hospitals and regular sessions will be held from 1 to 5 o'clock at Passavant hospital.

About the middle of November the Morgan County society will hold the annual banquet meeting. The speaker and date will be announced later.

Luncheon was served the physicians at 1 o'clock Thursday by Miss Ida B. Vanner, the superintendent, and the hospital staff.

NATIONAL SENATORIAL COMMITTEE ACTIVE IN WORK.

Edward Clifford is in the city for a brief visit and after his return to Chicago tonight will go immediately to New York City. As noted recently, Mr. Clifford has been serving for a number of weeks with the Republican national senatorial committee in New York. This committee concerns itself particularly with the campaign as related to the senate. While there is always great enthusiasm over the presidency, a great many interested in politics overlook the advantage of a president having the support of congress during his term if he is to be in advantageous position for carrying out party pledges and policies.

On behalf of the committee, Mr. Clifford has made investigation trips into a number of states and his reports have indicated the confidence the rank and file of the people have in Mr. Hughes. For some time the largest activities of the national committee were lined up for the eastern states, but it has been recognized more recently that there is greater need for organized effort in the central and western states, and organization activities have been increased in those localities and lessened somewhat in the east, where all political leaders admit the Hughes strength.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Waltman are entertaining Mrs. Waltman's mother and sister, Mrs. August Breidenstein, and Miss Breidenstein from Cassoday, Kan., a city in the vicinity of the great oil fields of El Dorado and Augusta, where they have holdings. They are very enthusiastic and speak of Butler county as "the greatest county of the greatest state of the union." Mrs. Breidenstein and daughter probably will spend the winter here and in other parts of Illinois.

ALL READY FOR ST. LOUIS U. GAME

ILLINOIS COLLEGE IN GOOD CONDITION FOR BATTLE

Rain the Last Two Days Will Make Playing Difficult — Harmon Will Start Same Lineup That Faced Lombard—Game Starts at 3:30

Illinois is ready for the game with St. Louis on Illinois field this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The rain of Wednesday afternoon prevented the usual scrimmage but signal practice was taken and the same rule applied for Thursday afternoon. The men were given work in the rain to get them used to handling a slippery ball as indication, point to a wet and heavy field this afternoon.

Coach Harmon on Thursday announced the officials for the game. The first officials selected by the Illinois management were all rejected by St. Louis. The reason given was that they did not know any of them. The management of St. Louis university came back then and wanted to bring three St. Louis men. Coach Harmon would have none of that and for a time it looked like the game might be cancelled.

However, a second list of men was selected and these were accepted by the St. Louis university management. The men agreed upon were Pogue and Graves, former Illinois University stars and Keithley of Peoria. It was learned Thursday that Pogue would be unable to come and Coach Harmon sent a list of men to select a substitute from. It is not likely that there will be any trouble about selecting the third man.

All of Illinois' men are in good condition for the game. It is probable that Harmon will start the same team that lined up against Lombard. However, some of the second string men may be used and it is probable that Spink will play part of the game at fullback.

The game probably will be one filled with uncertainties with a heavy field and a wet ball. It may be that both teams will fumble the ball and that touchdowns will be made thru fumbles. Another thing that will tell on a heavy field will be condition. Illinois undoubtedly is in excellent condition and in this respect should have it on St. Louis as that team has only played two games. Unless St. Louis is better than her scores this year have shown Illinois should be on the long end of the score when the final whistle blows.

PYTHIANS PLEDGE MR. REEVE'S SUPPORT

Will Aid New Grand Chancellor Loyal—J. F. Claus Named for Board Member.

At the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias in Decatur Thursday Grand Chancellor John J. Reeve received a great ovation. It was near the close of the grand lodge session when Mr. Reeve made a brief address, and before he had finished all in the entire company had publicly made the avowal of their desire and intention to aid him in making his administration a success. Mr. Reeve has through years been very popular with the members of the order and they are all looking forward with enthusiasm to a period of special activity and growth.

The grand chancellor yesterday announced the appointment of J. F. Claus of this city as a member of the Pythian board. This is a notable honor for Mr. Claus, as he will be associated with four other prominent Pythians of the state in the management of the state K. of P. homes in Decatur. In the management of these two extensive enterprises the board has very important duties and board membership is considered one of the highest honors within the state organization. Mr. Claus' successful experience in business affairs has well qualified him for the position.

FARM LANDS

No. 204. Just today we have listed a farm of 160 acres two miles out of Murrayville. This is an old established homestead and both land and buildings have been well kept. There are 40 acres of blue grass, 14 acres clover, 45 acres wheat, and 14 acres in alfalfa. The fencing is first class. There's a good house of eight rooms, cellar, cistern, wells, etc. A large barn, 52 by 54 feet, with tool and implement shed, 24 by 50 feet. Two granaries and a new silo. There is a first class orchard on the farm, and every thing that goes to make up a first class country home.

This farm can be bought for less than $100 per acre and on the easiest kind of terms. If interested "do it now."

No. 194. A farm of 160 acres mostly level black land and just a few minutes drive out of Waverly. Nearly new house of six rooms, barn for eight horses, big double corn crib, and out-buildings. This is a $200 farm but may be had for considerably less, wheat crop and all. What do you say?

CONCORD CHRISTIAN CHURCH DONATION SALE

Attendance Good in Spite of Bad Weather—May Be Made Annual Event.

The first annual donation sale of Concord Christian church was held today on the Cooper farm just east of the depot. The sale was well attended notwithstanding the bad weather. The bidding was strong and spirited, however, and the farm products brought good prices. One load of old corn brought $4c per bu. New corn sold for 56 to 71c. Oats sold for 50c a bu. A quantity of nice comb honey brought 17c per lb. Machinery and livestock were sold on commission. A quilt made by class No. 2 in the Christian church Bible school was bought by John A. Whorton for $20. Mr. Whorton generously gave the quilt back to the class and it was put up for sale the second time, G. J. R. Wooff purchasing the article for $15. The Ladies' Aid furnished a splendid luncheon, serving in a large tent. Earl Abernathy was auctioneer and Roy Abernathy clerk. The sale proved very successful and it was the opinion of all that it would be made an annual event.

Frank A. Hilliard of Ottumwa, Iowa, was numbered among the Thursday business visitors in the city.

FOUNDERS HONORED AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Dr. F. A. McCarty, Miss Cowgill and Mrs. W. A. Fay All Made Addresses at Annual Commencement Exercises—Large Attendance of Friends of College.

If the spirits of the departed can return to earth surely the noble ones who labored so faithfully in years gone by must have been invisible witnesses of the Founders' Day exercises Thursday at Illinois Woman's College when their deeds and memory were so much honored.

The music, the addresses and the audience were all in keeping with the importance of the occasion. Prof. Henry V. Stearns favored the audience with several numbers rendered on the pipe organ, Mrs. Florence Pierson Hartman sang with great acceptance a solo, "Eye Hath Seen," while Scripture reading and prayer by Rev. E. L. Pietcher of Centenary church completed the opening exercises.

College Organizations. Dr. Harker presided and briefly referred in terms of glowing eulogy to the noble deeds of the fathers to whom the present day owes the fine institution now enjoyed by so many. It was a task of love to honor their memories. He then introduced Miss Grace Cowgill, who told of the college organizations. Miss Cowgill said in part: "The Belles Lettres Society was organized in 1851 and for a time supplied the need of such a body, but as the college grew another was deemed wise and three years later the Phi Nu came into existence. Disastrous fires destroyed the books and furniture of the organizations, but bravely they went to work to make good the loss. Exhibitions were given in competition with the societies of Illinois College and the open meetings of the bodies were great events. These were the only societies for a great many years, but four years ago two more societies were formed and soon all four will have nice and desirable quarters.

"In religious direction the college has ever been alert and missionary societies flourished at an early day until the Y. W. C. A. came into existence. In 1899 Miss Leah McIlvaine was active in organizing this society. She was a born leader and it has since flourished and has been an instrument of much good. Physical education has not been neglected, but the monotonous exercises of the gymnasium were such as the young ladies must take but outdoor sports as such as they want to take and hence these three lawn tennis courts are much used in good weather. The first real athletic association was formed in 1904, and then the need of a gymnasium was felt and the young ladies raised $1,500 toward it, but the enterprise had to give way to music hall, but now the gymnasium is under way and we hope to be enjoying it by February next.

"Many years ago the Madrigal Club flourished and in 1899 the Glee Club sang to the delight of many. In 1903 came the German Club and the French Club later. In 1916 the Dramatic Club and next year the Home Economics Club.

The ideals of yesterday have culminated in the organizations of today. In the past we find hope and the future is our problem.

The Alumnae Association. The history of the alumnae association was graphically told by Mrs. Wm. A. Fay, who paid a glowing tribute to the founders, the president and all who had a part in the growth of the college. She said in part:

"In 1857 we learn from letters written to Mrs. Faithful Shipley Ebey the senior class sent out invitations to all old graduates to an alumnae levee at the college the evening of July 1, 1857 and a very pleasant time was enjoyed the no definite steps toward an organization were taken. In 1868 Dr. W. H. DeMotte was chosen president of the college and he took steps toward an organization of the association that the college's list of friends might be increased as his daughter, Mrs. Nellie DeMotte Brown stated, he builded better than he knew. In a copy of the Journal of June 17, 1869 I find an item stating that a meeting of the Illinois Female College alumnae society was to be held and a reception later. An account of the reception publication of the senior class of the I. F. C. was a brilliant affair. The beauty and chivalry of Jacksonville were out in force and all went merry as a marriage bell."

"In a Journal of June 9, 1870, I find the statement: "Last evening the first alumnae reunion of the I. F. C. was held in the basement of Centenary church. Seats were placed in the center and a wide promenade formed about was a feature of the occasion fully appreciated by the ladies and gentlemen present equally with the lemonade," for which I find $19.00 was expended. Mrs. Minerva Dunlap Scott, president, called the meeting to order and Rev. James Leaton offered prayer. After singing by Mrs. Josie Lorton, Mrs. Scott made an address and was followed by Dr. DeMotte.

Mrs. Fay told forcibly of the fire that leveled the college and the heroic efforts put forth in its rebuilding. Another reunion took place June 14, 1871 when a long program was rendered and refreshments served. For this the members were asked to give $2.00 each for expenses.

The constitutions were first printed in 1876 at a cost of $8.00 and it has been since revised and is badly in need of a new edition. In 1894 Dr. Harker suggested that some trustees of the college be elected from among the alumnae and Miss Mary Pegram and Mrs. Rhoda Toulmin Capps were chosen. The next year the association decided to give Dr. Harker $50.00 for the purchase of a microscope. In 1896 Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Ella Yates

Orr were elected trustees. And as the years went by others were chosen.

In 1897 Mrs. Martha Capps Oliver, assisted by Mary E. Loar and Mrs. Margaret DeMotte Potts issued the college greetings to the alumnae of the college. Financially the alumnae have been beneficial to the college raising large funds for scholarships and now a professor's chair, $40,000, is contemplated.

The Debt To Founders. The annual address was made by Dr. F. A. McCarty who spoke "The Survival of the Founders." His address was a masterly effort. He said in part:

I want to pay my respects to Mrs. Griffith, a graduate 64 years ago. When the Paris exposition was opened there was let a contract to wreck the building. It is beautiful today to see the honor paid the men of the past to whom we are so much indebted. Many others have done well but whose names are not so well known. How few men live after they leave the world. In Auburn cemetery lie the remains of many men great in finance and politics yet how few visit their graves, but the last resting places of Lowell Phillips Brooks, Longfellow, Oliver W. Holmes are visited often. Why do we honor the men who founded the institution? They dealt with that which abides. They built a college which enlarges and ennobles life. Probably some laughed at them but they persevered. They gave heroically and at great personal sacrifice. No subsequent campaign has witnessed any such sacrifices as they made.

W. F. Short, then a young preacher with a circuit in Macoupin county made a subscription. When the first payment became due he sold his horse and walked his long circuit. When the second one came due he had a little girl and a baby but he sold the family cow so much needed. Think what that meant. It is easy to see material things but not so easy to see eternal verities. When a railroad official bewailed the idea of a young man going into the ministry and said he wished the youth had undertaken something real the boy's father replied with flashing eyes that the son had undertaken something very real.

The material world insists on things they call real forgetting the spiritual side of life. The men who touched living things; who wrought for eternity are the ones remembered. Will our lives be such? It takes courage to stand up for the right the spiritual. The mission of the college is to be the mother of women. The great question of the college is what it can produce that will touch the lives of the men and women about us. We should do more than those who went before for we stand on their shoulders. Our temptation is to be superficial. The great work of the college is to get the students in touch with the unseen and be an inspiration in life.

Graduated Sixty-four years Ago. Dr. Harker said it was a great honor to have with them today Mrs. Alice McElroy Griffith of the first graduating class. The lady was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Pittner and said briefly: "Words cannot express the feeling I have today when I look on the fine buildings about me, the large classes and equipment. When I think of the wonderful ability of Dr. Harker, his readiness to aid you in all your work and enterprises and the tremendous accomplishments of the past years, I am indeed deeply impressed. I am past my 85th year and my experience appeals to me. I congratulate you and pray that the greatest of blessings may be yours."

Mrs. Griffith spoke in a clear, distinct voice, easily heard all over the room and her remarks caused a profound impression. Dr. Harker said Mrs. Griffith graduated in 1852, and was back here 64 years later and the freshman here today who comes back 64 years hence will have been able to span 134 years of the existence of the college.

All the speakers paid a just tribute to the great ability of Dr. Harker as well as to the obligations to the men of the past. After the college song and the benediction by Dr. McCarty all adjourned to lunch which was enjoyed by most of the Methodist ministers of the place as many other guests enjoyed that part of the program.

AN INTERESTING CEREMONY

A ceremony of much interest took place at the Woman's College yesterday morning. It was the unveiling of a tablet in honor of Julius Strawn and Dr. David Strawn, the latter being present. It was done with fitting ceremony and the following address:

Through the generosity of Dr. David Strawn, a stack room, with a capacity of 20,000 volumes, has just been added to the library. We unveil today a tablet on the wall of the library with the following inscription:

This tablet is erected in appreciation of Julius E. Strawn and David Strawn for their generous gifts to the library and to the endowment of the College.

The new gymnasium is going up rapidly. The first sod was turned July 7, 1916, by Bishop Wilson S. Lewis, Edmund Blackburn, Mrs. Alice McElroy Griffith, and others participating. The first brick was laid by Mrs. Harker, August 29, 1916. It is expected that the roof will be on by Thanksgiving and the building will be ready for use February 1, 1917.

We are praying and hoping for some friend to give $50,000 to make this a memorial gymnasium.

A REMINISCENCE.

The article regarding Father Adams recalls some stories told by the late J. W. Lathrop, one of the early merchants of Jacksonville. He told the writer that one morning he was in his store when two strange young ladies entered; one was rather timid and shy while the other was far more self possessed and not at all bashful and spoke for both. They wanted some raisins which he didn't keep but referred them to some grocery and they went out. After a while they returned, having made the round of the square and, forgetting that they had been in his store, again asked for raisins. He told them they had been there before and they said they had been all around and could find no place at which liquor wasn't sold where raisins could be had so the gallant young man went out and bought them some raisins.

Afterward Mr. Lathrop met them and their father at prayer meeting and escorted the young ladies home. As they entered the academy door the old gentleman said, "Girls, bring your bean into the sitting room," and they did so. Father Adams hastened to get a chew of tobacco into his mouth and then proved a very affable host.

The late J. H. Bancroft used to say he worked seven years to get his wife, as long a period as the revolutionary war.

Father Adams' greatest single achievement was getting Stephen Paxson interested in Sunday school work. In his later years Mr. Paxson met a friend of his early manhood and the gentleman was rather boastfully speaking of his wealth, when Mr. Paxson drew a record book from his pocket showing an account of 150,000 children gathered into Sunday schools he had organized thruout the west and south. The writer had that statement from Mr. Paxson's son, Rev. Wm. Paxson. At one time he went to a churchless neighborhood and called on a man whose wife was dead and he and his boys were getting along as best they could. With genuine hospitality they invited Mr. Paxson to eat with them and cutting a fitch of bacon from a piece hanging in the smokehouse and cooking it they ate that and some corn pone sitting on a log. A school was organized in the neighborhood and after a good many years Mr. Paxson was attending a Sunday school convention when a gentle young man approached him and told him he was one of the boys who ate dinner with him long ago sitting on a log and now he was a delegate to that convention from the church and Sunday school which grew out of that visit.

ANAEMIC PEOPLE

Need More Iron in the Blood. If you are anaemic, you need more iron in your blood, and the tell-tale symptoms are a pale face—colorless lips, ashen finger nails, poor circulation, and short breath, and more serious diseases are easily contracted when in this condition.

Mr. W. H. Hodges, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "I suffered from the effects of bad blood, was run-down, dizzy, had headaches and did not feel like working. I had tried Beef Iron and Wine without any help. After taking Vinol four days I noticed an improvement and its continued use built up my blood and my bad feelings disappeared like magic."

The bad effects of poor, devitalized blood cannot be overestimated, and it is the beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates contained in Vinol that enriches the blood, improves the circulation and in this natural manner builds up health and strength. ## SPORT NEWS

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Eight cities, including Chicago, are bidding for the Central Amateur Athletic Union winter championships which are to be awarded at a special meeting here next month.

This will be the first time in the history of the union that so many cities outside of Chicago have interested themselves in the events.

The only important sport of the winter season in which Chicago athletic clubs will not be interested is boxing, and the only reason for this state of affairs is that the Illinois law prohibits the sport for both professionals and "Simon pures."

Cleveland, Detroit, Minneapolis, Grand Rapids and Milwaukee are after the title championships. The Illinois Athletic club, the Chicago Athletic association, and the Hamilton club, all of Chicago, want the aquatic events, but these organizations will be opposed by the Detroit Athletic club.

As to basketball, the Illinois Athletic club, the Cleveland A. C., Detroit A. C. and Cincinnati Gymnasium and Athletic club are among the bidders. St. Paul and the Mystic A. C. of Chicago, are after the indoor track championships. These probably will be split, according to present plans, the junior series going to St. Paul and the seniors to Chicago.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. — For the first time in the history of Michigan's athletics, the cross country team of a rival school will appear on Ferry Field on Oct. 28. Michigan's opponents will be Syracuse university. The event will be decided on the day of the Syracuse-Michigan football game.

The sport here is comparatively new, only two Varsity teams having preceded the present one. The competition has hitherto been confined to the annual Eastern intercollegiate meet, in which the Wolverines finished last in 1914 and tenth in 1915.

Chicago, Oct. — Reports are current that Lee Fehl is to be deposed as manager of the Cleveland American league club. J. C. Dunn, president of the club, who maintains an office in Chicago, has declined to discuss the subject at this time.

"There are too many other things to take up my time, besides worry."

MOTHER! GIVE CHILD "SYRUP OF FIGS" IF TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious Clean Little Liver and Bowels.

Children love this "fruit laxative" and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, does not eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

"Goodnight Corns! We Use 'Gets-It!'"

3 Drops in 2 Seconds. That's All. "GETS-IT" Does the Rest. Never Fails.

"Really, I never could see how some few people use the most effective and painless way they can find to get rid of corns. They'll wrap their feet up with bandages and make that hiss their shoes full of feet and makes corns so painful they've got to walk sideways and wrinkle up their faces. Or they use salves that eat right into the toe and make it raw and sore, or they'll use plasters that make the corns bulge, or pick and gouge at their corns and make the toes bleed. Funny, isn't it? 'GETS-IT' is the simple, modern wonder for corns. Just put 3 drops on it. It dries instantly. No pain, fuss or trouble. The corn, callus or wart loosens and comes off. Millions use nothing else."

"GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price, by J. B. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Jacksonville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Armstrong's Drug Store and J. A. Obermeyer.

Owen was arraigned in the district court today for a preliminary hearing on a charge of murder in connection with the shooting on Oct. 4 of Mrs. Bessie Blanchard at her home at Foster, near here. Owen's weapon was discharged, and a heavy load of buckshot struck the woman in the head.

SPORTSMEN OF STATE ARE FOR LOWDEN

Form Organization in Chicago—Out With Letter Offering Suggestions

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Illinois hunters are anxious to see Colonel Frank O. Lowden elected governor. Their anxiety has shown itself in the formation of The Frank O. Lowden Shooters' club with headquarters at Chicago. This club is made up of many of the best-known gunners in the state—men who not only are expert marksmen at home, in woods and stream but who have some knowledge regarding the state game laws and their enforcement.

A letter sent out from headquarters of the shooters a few days ago indicated quite strongly that Gov. Dunne's fish and game "army" in Illinois has developed into a political organization to further the governor's political ambitions. This large squad of patriots is being paid by the tax-payers of the state and so serious have conditions become that the sportsmen are out with a letter asking for a reform all along the line.

An excerpt from the letter reads: "As a fellow shooter we invite your attention to the following facts:

"Illinois, the best natural game preserve in the United States, should collect from game and fishing licenses approximately $200,000 a year. It maintains a Game and Fish Commissioner with 88 wardens who are paid by the state salaries from $1,200 to $4,000 a year, totalling $114,100 by statute provision.

Must Devote All Time

"The statute provides no warden shall do other than devote his entire time to the state. Maine, Michigan and Wisconsin have game laws with wardens who are on their jobs. Illinois has game laws with wardens known to the paymaster, seldom to its shooters.

"We have already received a written assurance from Col. Frank O. Lowden that if elected governor he will personally see that our platform is enforced in letter and spirit. Our aim is lawful and broad enough to give us good and continued shooting. It is: 'State laws shall be rigidly enforced. That the amount annually collected from license fees shall not be used to maintain a state-wide political machine. That the department shall represent efficiency and not politics.'"

Among the shooters endorsing the statement are: J. T. Pirie, Robert M. Eastman, Angus S. Hibbard, W. A. Shattock, Fred S. James, Ruthven Deane, Hempstead Washburne, John R. Magill, Dr. W. W. Quinlan, Henry H. McKay, George A. Carpenter, Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, Bradford H. Whiting, Emerson Hough, Col. Robert D. Clarke, and Dr. F. A. Jefferson.

Besides the amount for salaries to regular officers of the commission and deputy game wardens mentioned in the shooters' letter as being $114,100 a year, other items incidental of the commission's work may be mentioned. Under Gov. Dunne the total for the fish and game commission for the four years under Dunne will be nearly $1,000,000.

Temporary Employees

This may be better understood when it is known that in May, 1915, there were thirty-one "temporary" employees under pay by the Fish and Game Commission. A year later the number was twenty-eight. The salaries of these "temporaries" (generally political appointees) amounted each month to nearly $2,700, or about $32,400 a year. Travelling expenses of the deputies and other officers have been aggregating $30,000 annually.

With all this money going into the pockets of Gov. Dunne's fish and game employees, the hunters and shooters of the state believe they are entitled to what they ask—protection of game and fish and removal of fish and game officials from political influence.

Under Gov. Dunne the game farm at Auburn has been abolished and thousands of costly game birds disposed of in one way or another. It has been repeatedly rumored that hundreds of these pheasants and young turkeys have been sent to leading Democrats and frequently have been the piece de resistance at Democratic banquets and banquets. At any rate, the game farm is gone and gone are the lovely birds that have been fostered there.

Game Commission Report

What this means to hunters of Illinois can be gained from the first report of the game commission under Gov. Dunne for the fiscal year—1913-1914. The report was an enthusiastic one regarding the game farm's future and its development under Dunne. Shortly afterward it was discontinued. The report gives the following summary of fancy birds reared by and then in possession of the state:

10,000 ring necked pheasants.
500 young, fancy pheasants including Golden, Reeves, Amberst, Mongolian, Jap and Silver varieties.
25 young Hungarian partridges.
5,000 young English call ducks.
50 Canadian geese.
25 Egyptian geese.
100 young wild turkeys.

If the truth about the disposition of these fowl would be told, what a lively tale it would make!

JESUIT MISSIONARY TO BE CANONIZED.

Isaac Jogues Was Tortured to Death 270 Years ago.

New York, Oct. 19.—Rev. Isaac Jogues, a French Jesuit missionary who was tortured to death by Mohawk Indians 270 years ago today, near the present village of Auriesville, N. Y., will it is expected, shortly be declared a martyr and worthy of the veneration of Christians by the Congregation of Rites at Rome. Information to this effect has been received recently from Rev. Charles Mackey of the Gregorian University.

Efforts to promote the canonization of Father Jogues were instituted more than 250 years following his death, or to be exact, in 1905. Prior to that date considerable preparation was made by compilation of facts concerning him and other Jesuit missionaries of his time, who likewise suffered martyrdom. These were Fathers Lalemt, Daniel, Brebeuf and Garnier.

Father Jogues was born at Orleans, France, February 10, 1607, and entered the Society of Jesus in 1624. Ordained a priest in 1636 he went to Canada as a missionary to the Hurons. While returning from a journey in 1642, thru the forests to Three Rivers, he was captured by the Mohawks for the first time, who tortured him, but permitted him to live. A year later he escaped thru the aid of some Dutch traders.

Returning to France, Father Jogues was sent back to Canada at his own request to establish a mission to the Mohawks. This was called the Mission of the Martyrs, because of the many Jesuits who had already given their lives to the spread of the Christian religion among the Indians.

It was on May 16, 1646, that Father Jogues, with Jean Bourdon, left Three Rivers with four Mohawk guides and two Algonquins. They reached the body of water now called Lake George on May 30. Six days later he reached the camp of his former captors and succeeded in negotiating a treaty with them.

Several weeks later the missionary again paid a visit to the Indians on the shores of Lake George, but this time he met with a very different reception. The sorcerer Ondesunk had persuaded his fellow-tribesmen that a pestilence which had broken out among them was due to a devil in a box which Father Jogues had left behind in his previous

WHEAT SCORES NEW HIGH PRICE LEVELS

Finish is Strong at a Net Advance of 1 1/2 to 3 Cents—Dollar a Bushel Corn Nearly Approached.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—New high price levels were reached today in the wheat market here and prices finished strong at a net advance of 1 1/2 to 3c for active months with December at $1.68 1/2 to $1.69 and May at $1.68 1/2 to $1.69, but unchanged to be lower for July. Crop reports from Canada were the darkest yet received and advices from Argentina told of continued damage from drought. Corn scored a gain of 3c net, and oats of 1/2c to 1c. In provisions the outcome ranged from the same as yesterday's close to a rise of 6 1/2c.

Bulls in wheat gave special attention today to reports that not only half or more of the Canadian crop was covered with snow but also that the grain in question was rain soaked and frozen.

With such reports current, lower cable quotations failed to cause more than a brief show of weakness in the market here. Assisted by a liberal purchase on European account and by urgent speculative domestic demand, prices continued to ascend until the last hour of the session.

Realizing of profits led to something of a setback for wheat prices during the late dealings. Dollar-a-bushel corn was nearly approached today, No. 2 yellow selling here at 96 1/2c, the highest since 1892. The exhaustion of stocks in Chicago together with rough weather in the corn belt tended to lift prices and so too did the bulge in wheat.

Oats rose with corn and wheat. Provisions went up to the highest point yet this season. It was said that purchases for Belgium had been larger than the trade had been led to expect.

YALE TO CELEBRATE
ANNIVERSARY

Notable Event in History of Old University Will Be Commemorated—Monster Pageant Planned.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 19.—Two hundred years! All that the rounding out of two centuries of progress and development, of building and expansion, of goals gained and ambitions realized, of work performed and projects completed, of ideals attained and problems solved, of things done means to a great educational institution is what Yale University is going to celebrate at the end of this week.

The celebration is to take place Saturday, two centuries to a day from the time that the little group of divines, who formed the Yale faculty, examining Greek and Latin roots into a dozen youthful heads, decided that they could make a better job of it in New Haven than they had made in Saybrook, where the infant college had been located since its foundation fifteen years before. They decided to move to New Haven and, in commemoration of the removal, the celebration is to be held. It was an event that affected both Yale and New Haven the most profoundly in character, ideals and progress of anything in the entire history of both the city and the college.

Mammoth Pageant

The principal feature of the celebration is to be a mammoth pageant depicting historical scenes connected with the university. The pageant is to be given in the great Yale "bowl." The completed plans show that it will be the largest in number of actors ever gathered in the history of the drama in any play or pageant. Six thousand actors will be on the stage at the same time.

The great drama will start with a prelude showing the wedding procession of Margaret, grandmother of John Yale, who received her dowry, the reversion of Plaslyn Yale. From this inheritance two centuries later his descendant, Elhu Yale, made the name forever famous by bestowing it on a small "collegiate school" in Connecticut.

Then will come a series of historical scenes, the Governor's Foot Guard, under Benedict Arnold, demanding the keys to the powder house in 1775, the invasion of New Haven by British troops in 1775, the martyrdom of Nathan Hale, the visit of George Washington to New Haven, all grouped under tableaux of the Revolutionary period.

College life between the Revolution and the Civil War will be depicted by an old fashioned football game, interrupted by firemen laying a hose across the ground; after which a free-for-all fight between students and town boys will follow. Receipt of the news of the admission of Kansas as a slave State, the rapid recruiting of student volunteers, the funeral of Theodore Winthrop, the first man to fall on the battle field, are some of the incidents of the Civil War period.

What Yale Has Stood For Stationary actors forming friezes portraying college life since the Civil War, will compose panels, as the directors considered the events unsuited for pageantry. Thru the historical scenes allegories will portray symbolically what Yale has stood for, and what it will stand for to the state, to the nation and to the world.

The pageant will conclude with a grand finale, the retrospect of all that has gone before and the showing forth of what Yale is giving the world at present. Yale, the central figure, surrounded by the nine departments of the university, will come in drawn by white oxen with silver chains and accompanied by her most famous graduates with their inventions, discoveries and works that have been given to science and art. In the distance will be seen the groups that have made Yale's history and, at the close, Yale will be seen looking fearlessly to her future world of service while all the audience and performers join in singing the Yale song.

In addition to the great pageant the bi-centennial celebration is to include a program of commemorative exercises to be held in Woolsey Hall Saturday morning. The meeting will be preceded by a combine academic and civic procession which will embrace the faculty, students and alumni of the university and official representatives of the state of Connecticut and the city of New Haven.

The exercises will be opened with prayer by Dean Charles R. Brown. Then will come the singing of the sixty-fifth psalm, the psalm which was sung on the day the college first opened in New Haven and which has formed a feature of the graduation day exercises during each year of the two centuries since 1716. President Hadley is to deliver an introductory address at the commemorative exercises and Mayor Rice will speak in behalf of the city. The historical oration will be delivered by Prof. Williston Walker and the exercises will be brought to a close with a benediction by Bishop Brewster.

He is said to have received his wound in March, 1915, by exposing himself recklessly after a stormy interview with Emperor William.

WHY HUGHES SHOULD BE ELECTED

(By former United States Senator Joseph M. Dixon, manager Roosevelt Campaign in 1912)

Mr. Hughes Progressive.

It is futile for the Democrats to expect to attract any perceptible proportion of the progressive voters of four years ago. Mr. Hughes is progressive enough for all of us. The man who successfully conducted the probe of the insurance scandal was among the earliest of our genuine progressive leaders.

Mr. Hughes has never been aligned with any element in the Republican party that could be considered reactionary. His entire course during his public career has been along progressive lines and in the furtherance of doctrines that are purely progressive. He earned the confidence and esteem of the progressive element of both parties during his administration as Governor of New York. He made the Albany climate an unhealthy one for the political bosses; he changed the old order of things completely; he attracted the combined antagonism of the special interests and those who had come to think, through years of entrenched security, that they were bigger than the law and the constitution.

Mr. Hughes' leadership in this campaign is really the harvest of the crop sown by the Progressives during the past six years. His nomination is a triumph for the Progressive forces in American politics. That Mr. Hughes recognizes this fact is shown in the personnel of his campaign committee and the men chosen to direct the battle this fall.

Not even Mr. Hughes' enemies have dared to question his political and personal integrity. His elevation to the Supreme Bench met with the commendation of all good Americans regardless of political affiliations. His nomination for the presidency is a fine illustration of the spirit of our times, a spirit which commands and rewards honesty, fearlessness and efficiency in the public service. Without seeking the nomination, without even permitting others to seek it for him, he became the choice of his party.

By the sheer force of his personality, his distinguished public service and his indifference to personal ambition, he attracted all elements to his party. No machine, no combination of influential leaders, no clique or faction promoted his candidacy. It has been said and with some measure of truth "Nobody" wanted Hughes except the people."

The Montana Situation. I have no hesitancy in predicting that Montana will roll up a splendid majority for Mr. Hughes. The combined vote of the Progressives and Republicans four years ago was 49,863 for Mr. Wilson.

The very heavy increase in population during the past four years, the new settlers coming as they have from the Republican states by the east of us, gives Montana this year a voting strength in excess of 200,000. In the recent primaries, at which about one-half of the total vote was polled, the Republican candidates received an average vote of about 10,000 in excess of Democratic vote for the same offices.

This year our women vote for the first time and there is not the slightest doubt that a majority of them will mark their ballot for the Republican candidates. Mr. Wilson's wavering attitude on the question of universal suffrage as contrasted with Mr. Hughes' emphatic declaration that he favored a constitutional amendment giving votes to women, will have its influence upon the woman's vote.

Our State organization in Montana is in splendid working shape. The Progressives have a strong representation on the ticket and both elements are working well in harness for the success of the united party. We look for the election of both of our Congressional candidates, of former Congressman Pray to succeed Senator Meyers in the Senate and a clean sweep for the State ticket.

Wilson speaks too long or it will break the bounds."

He spoke of the lead of light on public questions, saying the object of the new tariff commission is to throw light on the tariff.

"I want to find a body of men absolutely fair and non-partisan," he said. He added that he wanted a non-partisan commission but that congress had given him a bi-partisan commission. He also spoke of the trade commission. "It is not playing the game," he declared in speaking of the old methods of handling trusts. The old method, created uneasiness among business men because they were in doubt how the trust laws would be interpreted. The trade commission, he said, would arbitrate between the law and business so that there would be complete understanding about the law.

"What we want is not heat but light." "You men are sometimes singularly inattentive," adding that too little attention had been paid to his recent appointment of an advisory committee for the council of national defense. He explained that the committee should do important work in strengthening the preparedness of the nation.

"When you name a body of men like this you take a great step on preparedness, both for war and for peace," he said. "I predict that this is the beginning of a renaissance of patriotic feeling and cooperation."

NOTES FROM THE SYNOD. T. M. Tomlinson has returned from the Presbyterian synod which comprises representatives of all the Presbyterian churches of the state. He saw there Rev. C. M. Brown who is doing a good work at Joliet. The coming pastor of State Street church, Rev. R. B. Wilson, was there and from all sides Mr. Tomlinson heard good words for the gentleman. Dr. Penhallegon, retiring moderator, was succeeded by Dr. Anderson of the Bloomington Presbytery. Mrs. Morey and Mrs. Wm. Lucas, Jr., represented the ladies of the Jacksonville churches in the Women's Missionary gathering.

As this is the centennial of Presbyterianism in the state many relics were shown among them the first bell ever used by a Protestant church in the state.

SOME FINE HOGS Wm. W. Carter, two miles south of the city, has attained fine success in rearing pure bred Poland-China hogs. He has a fine lot of registered animals and yesterday shipped the last he has for sale, five gifts to B. F. Dorsey & Sons, veteran hog breeders of Versailles. Mr. Carter is well fixed for the business which he well understands and has a fine breeding herd and takes great care with his selection and breeding. Hitherto excellence in the matter of inbreeding and other points has resulted in sourlier Poland-China hogs and more delicate animals and this trouble Mr. Carter is successfully overcoming.

"If you want to get your neck broken try to stop Progressivism. Its object is to improve society."

The president said business men should not resist Progressive policies but should try to guide them.

"Do not dam the flood of progress."

"Progressive policies involve change," the president said, "but they ought not to be resisted unless they involve deterioration."

"When the nations of the world come to love America," he said, "they will obey and follow America."

Speaking before the Press Club of Chicago, President Wilson declared he regarded the campaign "as a great interruption to the rational performance of public business."

"Progressive policies involve change," the president said, "but they ought not to be resisted unless they involve deterioration."
